

EXCALIBUR THEATRE ARTS CO.

SUMMER DANCE INTENSIVES

This summer, free your inner dancer with a variety of workshops that will lift your spirit and challenge your body and mind, supported by a crew of professional instructors. Our very talented guest instructors include Natalie LeFebvre Gnam and James Gnam from Vancouver, alongside two of Excalibur's current faculty members, Lauren Cape & Emily MacDermott. Our summer programs are designed to encourage creativity, develop technical and artistic skills, and deepen your appreciation for the art of dance.

Natalie LeFebvre Gnam is an award-winning dance artist, movement educator, and the artistic producer of plastic orchid factory. She studied at L'École Supérieure de Ballet in Montréal and since 1997 has collaborated and performed in classical and contemporary works with Le Jeune Ballet du Québec, Les Grands Ballets Canadiens de Montréal, dancersdancing, Coleman Lemieux & Co. and MACHiNENOiSY. Since 2009, she works closely with James Gnam and the artists of plastic orchid to create and produce interdisciplinary performances. Natalie has taught ballet and contemporary technique in various schools across Metro Vancouver and British Columbia. She is currently a faculty member at The Shadbolt Centre for the Arts, Dance Collective and the Modus Operandi Training Program. Outside the studio, Natalie is Operations Manager for Vancouver theatre company, Fight With a Stick, and continues in her role as the chair of the Training Society of Vancouver.

James Gnam is a Vancouver-based dancer, choreographer and the artistic director of plastic orchid factory. He trained at the National Ballet School of Canada and from 1998 to 2009 has worked with classical companies Les Grands Ballets Canadiens and Ballet British Columbia, dancing principal roles in major productions. Since 2009, his work focuses on contemporary creation and interdisciplinary collaboration. He works closely with Montréal-based companies, Grand Poney and Mayday Danse and with the artists of plastic orchid factory, he develops work that fuses dance with visual art and theatre. James is also a regular faculty member at Harbour Dance Centre, and has taught master classes and choreographed for Simon Fraser University's School of Contemporary Arts as well as the University of Alberta.
